

Snowboard Parallel Giant Slalom

Genting
Snow Park

Parallel Giant Slalom sees two competitors race side by side on parallel courses, skiing between gates at speeds of up to 70km/h

Start area

Nevin Galmarini
(SUI), 2018
Olympic
champion

Majority of time, board is ridden on its edges, cutting into snow as athlete weaves around flags

Olympic
debut: Salt
Lake 2002

Racers
incline into hill for edge
bite

Tapered gates
allow snowboarders
to lean in sharply on turns

Qualification: Athletes race down each course, with both times added
together

Finals: Fastest
qualifiers advance to head-to-head elimination rounds – culminating in quarter finals, semi-finals and two medal finals

560m

MEDAL WINNERS, PYEONGCHANG 2018

Finish area

Nevin Galmarini (SUI)

Ester Ledecka (CZE)

Sangho Lee (KOR)

Selina Joerg (GER)

Zan Kosir (SLO)

Ramona Hofmeister (GER)