

U.S. raid in Syria kills top Islamic State leader

A U.S. special forces raid in northwestern Syria has killed the top leader of the so-called Islamic State group, according to President Joe Biden

Feb 3, Atmeh: U.S. raid kills IS chief Abu Ibrahim al-Hashimi al-Quraishi (left). Syrian rescue workers say at least 13 people were killed by clashes and explosions after raid

Barisha: U.S. raid in Oct 2019 resulted in death of Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi (left) – former leader of so-called Islamic State group

- Syrian government control
- Kurdish-led forces with Syrian government presence
- Syrian anti-government groups
- Turkey and Turkish-backed forces inside Syria