

Today in History

March 1, 1872

▲ Yellowstone National Park was founded in the U.S., becoming the world's first national park. It is renowned for its geysers and strikingly coloured hot springs

1956: The Radiotelephony alphabet, Alfa, Bravo, Charlie etc, was finalised – easy to understand in any language or in cases of poor radio connection

1992: King Fahd of Saudi Arabia unveiled major political reforms after 10 years of authoritarian rule

2006: The English-language Wikipedia reached its one millionth article

2007: Switzerland accidentally invaded Liechtenstein after 171 lost infantrymen crossed the border