

Impact of war on global prices

Commodity prices have soared since Russia invaded Ukraine. Russia is the world's largest exporter of natural gas, second-largest oil exporter, and third-largest coal exporter

Ukraine's
Black Sea ports accounted for 60% of global exports of sunflower
oil before closure

*Million British thermal units