

May 14, 1900

▲ The second modern Olympic Games opened in Paris. Women were allowed to compete for the first time, although only 22 took part, compared to 975 men

1939: Lina Medina gave birth in Peru at age five, the youngest confirmed mother in medical history

1955: The Soviet Union and seven other communist states in eastern Europe signed the Warsaw Pact

2007: A new hummingbird, a blue and green throated species called the gorgeted puffleg, was discovered

2021: China's Tianwen-1 lander-rover vehicle landed successfully on Mars