

U.S. speeds up military aid to Ukraine

President Joe Biden's Ukraine Democracy Defence Lend-Lease Act paves the way for Ukraine to quickly receive weapons for its war against Russia and reimburse the U.S. at a later date

U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO UKRAINE ($ millions)

Includes selected equipment

Feb 24

Russia invades Ukraine

Feb 25: Anti-tank and small arms munitions, body armour

Mar 12

Anti-tank and anti-aircraft weapons

Apr 1: Laser-guided rockets, Humvees, Switchblade drones, machine guns

Apr 21: Howitzers and artillery rounds, tactical vehicles, Phoenix Ghost drones

May 6

Artillery rounds, radar systems

FEB 2022

MAR

APR

MAY

Apr 5
Javelin missiles

Mar 16

Stinger anti-aircraft missiles, Javelin and AT-4 anti-tank weapons, aerial drones, small arms ammunition

Apr 13

Howitzers and artillery rounds, radar systems, Javelin missiles, Switchblade drones, armoured personnel carriers, Mi-17 helicopters

May 9

President Biden signs Lend-Lease Act into law

Total military aid since start of Russian invasion: More than $3.5 billion