

Today in History

June 5, 1977

▲ The Apple II, the world's first personal computer, went on sale. Steve Wozniak and Steve Jobs's model quickly pulled ahead of its rivals, despite its higher price

1947: U.S. Secretary of State George Marshall outlined his plan to help Europe recover financially from the shattering effects of World War II

1967: The Six Day War began between Israel and its Arab neighbours

2012: Astronomers viewed the rare spectacle of the Transit of Venus

2017: Montenegro was formally welcomed into NATO, becoming the 29th member of the alliance