

Military aid pours into Ukraine

Ukraine's president Volodymyr Zelensky has repeatedly called for heavy weapons such as tanks and artillery. However, most nations are sending infantry weapons or anti-tank weapons instead

T-72 battle tank

Road speed: 60km/h,
cross country, 35km/h

12.7mm
DShK
machine gun

Crew: 3. Commander, gunner, driver

Gun system: 125mm smooth-bore
with co-axial 7.62mm
machine gun

Reactive armour

240 T-72s
from Poland

12 T-72s from Czech Rep.

Engine: V12, 12-cylinder. Multi-fuel – can use diesel, petrol or aviation fuel

Military aid to Ukraine: €33.64bn (Jan 24* to May 10, 2022, euros)

United States

€24.11 billion ($25.45bn)

UK 2.34bn

Estonia 230.00m

Australia 129.17m

Poland 1.52bn

Latvia 218.80m

Sweden 125.03m

EU† 1.50bn

France 162.52m

Slovakia 113.82m

Germany 1.39bn

Italy 150.00m

Belgium 76.63m

Canada 756.35m

Czech Rep. 144.60m

Netherlands 72.23m

Norway 264.34m

Denmark 134.40m

Other (11) 328.11m

Heavy weapons

Tanks
T-72s

Artillery

MRLs‡

Armoured vehicles

Air
defence

Drones¶

Manpads§

U.S.

90

500

821

2,300

Poland 240 ● UK is supplying Challenger II tanks to replace T-72s

Germany

14

500

Canada

4

8

Norway

100

Estonia

9

France

12

Czech Rep.

12

20

20

17

160

Australia

6

20

Netherlands

5

200

Slovakia

1 ●

Spain

20

Delivered

252

146

20

579

1

821

3,260

S-300 system
from Slovakia
in exchange for
Patriot battery
from U.S.

*Jan 24 2022: Russia's military buildup near Ukraine. †EU Commission and Council.

‡Multiple rocket launchers. ¶Lithuania is donating one Turkish Bayraktar TB2 combat drone. Ukraine has bought 20-50 TB2s. §Man-portable air-defence systems

Sources: Ukraine support tracker, Kiel Institute for the World Economy, Reuters

© GRAPHIC NEWS