

Today in History

September 1, 1715

▲ Louis XIV of France died. He became king in 1643 at age five, and his reign of 72 years, 110 days is the longest recorded of any monarch of a sovereign country

1969: Colonel Muammar Gaddafi led a military coup in Libya

2002: China blocked access to U.S. search engine Google to censor information available to internet users

2010: Divers found 200-year-old bottles of beer, thought to be the world's oldest, on a shipwreck in the Baltic

2010: The 33 trapped Chilean miners received food piped through a tube, their first hot meal in 26 days