

Boom lands major order for up to 60 jets

Boom Supersonic has won a significant new order for its as yet unbuilt Overture supersonic passenger jet after American Airlines placed a deposit for 20 aircraft, with an option to buy 40 more

OVERTURE

Delta wing: Improves supersonic performance and subsonic stability, minimising aircraft drag and required engine thrust

Capacity: 65-80 passengers

Top speed: Mach 1.7 (2,100 km/h)

Cruising altitude: 18,300m (60,000 ft)

Range: 7,866km (4,888 miles)

Ticket: Likely $5,000
per seat

FLIGHT TIMES

*Current time

World's largest airline by fleet size/passengers carried. Based out of Fort Worth, Texas
Founded: 1926

BOOM

Colorado startup aiming to resurrect supersonic air travel following 2003 demise of Concorde
Founded: 2014

Overture design revealed

Production begins

Rollout

First flight

Passenger flights commence

2022

2023

2024

2025

2026

2027

2028

2029