

UN report accuses China of rights abuses

The United Nations condemns China for serious human rights offences in Xinjiang province, including torture and other forms of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment against ethnic Uyghurs

- Suspected detention centres
- Facilities believed enlarged 2019-20

Women who violate family planning laws face coercive birth-control measures, such as internment and mandatory sterilisation

Many religious sites have been destroyed, such as Imam Asim Shrine

Mar 2012: Structure clearly visible

Jun 2020: Site obliterated