

Stampede at Indonesia soccer match

An investigation is underway after at least 125 people died and more than 300 were injured in a crush at an Indonesian football match that has become one of the world's worst stadium disasters

Kanjuruhan Stadium: Police fired tear gas after fans invaded pitch, triggering stampede towards exits

DEADLIEST SOCCER STADIUM DISASTERS OVER LAST 40 YEARS

■ 2001, Ghana: Around 126 people killed in stampede at Accra's main stadium when police fire tear gas at rioting fans

■ 1989, UK: Crush at Hillsborough stadium in Sheffield results in deaths of 97 Liverpool fans attending club's FA Cup semi-final match against Nottingham Forest

■ 1988, Nepal: At least 93 people die in stampede during hailstorm at national stadium in Kathmandu

■ 1996, Guatemala: Up to 82 people die in crush before World Cup qualifying match between Guatemala and Costa Rica in Guatemala City

■ 2012, Egypt: At least 73 people killed in clashes between rival fans in Port Said

■ 1982, Russia: At least 66 people die in crush at UEFA Cup tie between Spartak Moscow and HFC Haarlem at Luzhniki Stadium in Moscow. Other reports put number of fatalities closer to 340

■ 1985, UK: At least 56 people killed when fire breaks out at Valley Parade stadium during match between Bradford City and Lincoln City

■ 2001, South Africa: Stampede at Ellis Park stadium in Johannesburg leaves at least 43 people dead