

Meta

Hacker Way

Today in History

October 28, 2021

▲ Social media giant Facebook changed its corporate name to Meta, to reflect the company's diversification into areas such as virtual reality

1922: Mussolini's blackshirts marched on Rome, leading to the formation of a fascist government in Italy

1962: The Cuban Missile Crisis ended when Russia withdrew its missiles

2002: Luiz Inacio "Lula" da Silva won Brazil's presidential election by a landslide

2002: A draft EU constitution was unveiled by former French president Valery Giscard d'Estaing