

UN Rights Council to investigate Iran protests

The UN Rights Council has demanded Iran end its “disproportionate” use of force against protests calling for improved women’s rights. At least 465 people have been killed, including 58 children, 27 women and 50 police

Sep 14, Tehran: 22-year-old Mahsa Amini (above) arrested by morality police

Sep 16: Amini declared dead at Tehran’s Kasra Hospital – reports of “multiple blows” to head

Death toll: Includes 58 people under 18 years of age

Nov 16, Izeh: Kian Pirlalak (left), nine years old, killed when security services opened fire on family car as he sat next to his father

Oct 30, Piranshahr: 16-year-old Kumar Daroftadeh (right) dies after being shot multiple times at close range by security forces

