

Today in History

November 28, 1582

▲ Playwright William Shakespeare married Anne Hathaway. The groom was 18, the bride around eight years older and pregnant with their first child

1821: Panama declared itself independent of Spain and joined the Republic of Colombia

1905: Arthur Griffith founded the Irish political party Sinn Fein, a focus for Irish republicanism

1948: The first Polaroid camera went on sale. It used self-developing film to create instant prints

2016: All but three members of Brazil's Chapecoense football team died in a plane crash in Colombia