

January 21, 1993

▲ New U.S. President Bill Clinton appointed his wife, Hillary, to head a task force on health care reform, but its plans ultimately failed following immense opposition

1793: Louis XVI was beheaded on the guillotine after being overthrown in the French Revolution and tried for treason

2003: The hispanic population became the largest minority in the U.S., overtaking the black population

2008: A woman thought to be the last native speaker of the Eyak language of Alaska died aged 89

2022: Russia denied plans for an invasion of Ukraine, despite massing 100,000 troops near the border