

Today in History

January 25, 1945

▲ The U.S. city of Grand Rapids became the first in the world to add fluoride, a mineral found in rocks and soil, to its drinking water to reduce tooth decay

1924: The first Winter Olympic Games began in Chamonix, France, with medals awarded in 16 events

1983: The Infrared Astronomical Satellite, designed to detect infrared radiation from space, was launched

1998: Spice Girl Victoria Adams and soccer star David Beckham announced their engagement

2003: Tennis star Serena Williams won the Australian Open, her fourth consecutive Grand Slam title