

JAN 16-29

Melbourne Park

Australian Open 2023: Men's preview

Novak Djokovic returns to Australia after his controversial deportation in 2022, aiming to win a record-extending 10th title in Melbourne

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Rafael Nadal

Defending champion is battling injury concerns – lost both his matches at United Cup

Casper Ruud

Emerging talent aiming to build on 2022 form – reached finals Roland Garros and U.S. Open

Stefanos Tsitsipas

Must improve on 44% win-ratio against top 10 players to challenge for maiden major

Novak Djokovic

Victory would equal Nadal's record of 22 Grand Slams – won warm-up title in Adelaide

PLAYER RECORD

	Nadal	Ruud	Tsitsipas	Djokovic
2022 win-loss	39-8	51-22	61-24	42-7
2022 titles	4	3	2	5
Career titles (total)	92	9	9	92
Grand Slams	22	0	0	21

LASTING LEGACY

Only Roger Federer, now retired, has more match wins in Melbourne than Djokovic and Nadal (right) – trio share 17 titles

Player	Win ratio	Wins	Titles
Roger Federer	87.2%	102	6
Novak Djokovic	91.1%	82	9
Rafael Nadal	83.5%	76	2
Stefan Edberg	84.9%	56	2
Andy Murray	77.8%	49	0
Andre Agassi	90.6%	48	4
Ivan Lendl	82.8%	48	2

