

Global firms helping Myanmar's military

Companies from at least 13 countries have helped Myanmar's military to produce a vast range of weapons that are being used to commit atrocities against its own people, former top UN officials say

COUNTRIES "ENABLING MYANMAR'S MILITARY" TO MAKE WEAPONS*

Germany

U.S.

France

Austria

Ukraine

Self-propelled howitzers, armoured vehicles, light tanks

China: Missiles, drones, anti-aircraft guns, trucks

Taiwan

South Korea

Artillery shells, missiles, rocket launchers

Russia
Weapon sights

Japan

Myanmar

India: Fuses, boosters, igniters, detonating caps, electric detonators, weapon sights

Israel

Automatic rifles, submachine guns

Singapore
Machine guns, small arms

Parts and components

End-items†

Machinery and technology

Raw materials

*Most arms-making technology was transferred to Myanmar before 2021 military coup

†Devices that increase effectiveness of weapon but not essential for its basic use

Sources: AP, BBC, Special Advisory Council for Myanmar

© GRAPHIC NEWS