

Premier League clubs hit January sales

Premier League clubs splurged a record £815m (€922m) in an unprecedented January transfer window, which included Chelsea breaking the British transfer record on a frantic deadline day

JANUARY TRANSFER WINDOW: Premier League clubs account for 79% of total spend in Europe's top five football leagues – highest ever proportion

Premier League's record gross spend in January transfer window – 90% up on 2018 record

Previous record

2023 spend is triple last January window

Combined with record summer transfer window (£1.9bn), Premier League clubs spend total of £2.8bn during 2022/23 season

MOST EXPENSIVE PREMIER LEAGUE TRANSFERS*

Chelsea spent over £250m on eight players in January, including British record £107m for Argentina World Cup winner

Enzo Fernandez (right) from Benfica

» Transfer from » Transfer to

Enzo Fernandez ARG

» Benfica » Chelsea

£107m
(2023)

Jack Grealish ENG

» Aston Villa » Man City

£100m
(2021)

Romelu Lukaku BEL

» Inter » Chelsea

£97m
(2021)

Paul Pogba FRA

» Juventus » Man Utd

£89m
(2016)

Mykhailo Mudryk UKR

» Shakhtar » Chelsea

£89m
(2023)

Antony BRA

» Ajax » Man Utd

£82m
(2022)

Harry Maguire ENG

» Leicester » Man Utd

£78m
(2019)

*Fees inc. potential add-ons

