

Race against time to find quake survivors

An international aid effort is underway in Turkey and Syria following the devastating earthquake that has left over 11,200 people dead, with numbers likely to rise further

- Towns with fatalities
- IDPS / Refugee centres
- ✈ Airport closed
- ✈ Airport operational
- H Hospital

INTENSITY SCALE

- Strong
- Very strong
- Severe
- Violent

Feb 6, 04:17
local time:
7.8 magnitude
Depth: 18km

Feb 6, 13:24
local time:
7.5 magnitude
Depth: 10km

Malatya: Historic Yeni Camii mosque, extensively damaged

Diyarbakir: Buildings collapsed more than 330km from epicentre

Adana: Apartment buildings reduced to rubble

Gaziantep: Widespread devastation in city of over two million people. 2,000-year-old castle partially destroyed

TURKEY
8,500+ dead

SYRIA
2,600+ dead

Iskenderun: Docks and buildings collapsed, including hospital

Aleppo: Ancient citadel, ravaged by decade of war, further damaged by quake

MEDITERRANEAN SEA

50km
30 miles

