

Today in History

March 4, 2022

▲ Australian cricketer Shane Warne died from a heart attack at age 52. He took 708 Test wickets, the second highest total, in his stellar 15-year international career

1873: The New York Graphic became the first daily newspaper to include illustrations

1933: Franklin D. Roosevelt was sworn in as U.S. president, telling the American people “the only thing we have to fear is fear itself”

2008: Ukraine warned that it could divert gas shipments to Europe if its own supplies were cut

2022: A spent rocket booster crashed into the far side of the moon