

Today in History

March 5, 2022

▲ The wreck of explorer Ernest Shackleton's ship Endurance was located in the Antarctic, 107 years after it sank on his ill-fated attempt to reach the South Pole

1933: Adolf Hitler obtained sufficient votes in the Reichstag elections to establish a dictatorship

1953: Soviet leader Joseph Stalin died after three decades in power. His regime of terror caused the deaths of tens of millions

1998: NASA announced the discovery of significant ice deposits on the moon

2013: Venezuelan president Hugo Chavez, who thrived on confrontation with Washington, died at age 58