

Boston Marathon remembers

This year's race marks 10 years since two bomb blasts near the finish line killed three people and injured over 260 in 2013. Events will light up the city in yellow and blue in a day of volunteering and acts of kindness

ONE BOSTON DAY: April 15

- 14:30: Dedication of new commemorative finish line and unveiling of One Boston Day marker
- 14:49: Bells of Old South Church to ring at time of first bomb blast in 2013
- 19:00: B.A.A. Gives Back event at Fairmont Copley Plaza

FINISH: Boston
Copley Square

MARATHON ROUTE: April 17

START: Hopkinton
East Main Street

