

Cullinan 1:
At 530 carats,
world's largest colourless cut diamond

Coronation Regalia for King Charles

The Coronation Regalia, part of the Crown Jewels, symbolises the powers and responsibilities of the monarch

SCEPTRES

Sovereign's Sceptre with Cross (left) represents monarch's temporal power. Associated with good governance

Sceptre with Dove, representing monarch's spiritual role, also used in ceremony

SOVEREIGN'S ORB

Globe of gold topped with cross and banded with gemstones, symbolises Christian world

AMPULLA

Gold flask in shape of eagle, holds holy oil – consecrated in Jerusalem in March – used to anoint king and queen

CORONATION SPOON

Oldest item in regalia, made in 12th century. Silver-gilt spoon was used to anoint King James I in 1603, and has featured at every coronation since

CROWNS

Charles will be crowned with St Edward's Crown (left), made for King Charles II in 1661 to replace medieval crown melted down in English Civil War

Charles will wear Imperial State Crown after coronation

2.2kg crown of solid gold with 444 gemstones

SWORDS

Five swords used in coronation procession, including Sword of State (below), symbolising royal authority. Steel blade with silver-gilt hilt, with wooden scabbard covered in velvet

CORONATION RINGS

Sovereign's Ring of sapphires with ruby cross set in diamonds, symbolises kingly dignity. It and Queen Consort's Ring made for coronation of King William IV and Queen Adelaide in 1831