

North Korea's new missile?

North Korea launched what might be a new model intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) towards Japan's northern island of Hokkaido, prompting an evacuation warning for millions of residents

▲ Feb 8, 2023: Canister system displayed at military parade – canisters used for launching solid-fuel missiles*

Apr 13, 07:23 local time: Missile launched, flies 1,000km towards Japan's EEZ

J-Alert evacuation order:
Retracted 20 minutes after launch

Kim Jong-un's recent missile tests

2017 20 1 → 3 24

2018 Tests of missiles halted†

2019 23 1 → 24

2020 9 9

2021 5 3 8

2022 63 5 5 73

2023 12 10 2 → 24

Short, medium, intermediate-range ballistic missiles

Other, nuclear-capable cruise

ICBM-class weapons

If latest missile is solid-fuel, North Korea will have successfully tested four different ICBM types*

†Ahead of meeting between Kim and U.S. President Donald Trump