

Today in History

May 19, 2018

▲ Britain's Prince Harry married U.S. actress Meghan Markle. The new Duke and Duchess of Sussex chose to quit the Royal Family in 2020 and relocated to California

1588: The Spanish Armada set sail on an ill-fated attempt to invade England and overthrow Queen Elizabeth I

1643: The Confederation of New England was formed for defence in the wars with Native American tribes

1953: The 100,000th Holden, the most popular make of car in Australia, rolled off the assembly line in Melbourne

2008: The European Commission granted the first licence to market a vaccine for H5N1 bird flu