

Thai opposition wins big election victory

Thailand's two main opposition parties have agreed to form a ruling coalition after securing a stunning election win over military-backed rivals that have controlled government for nearly a decade

THAILAND ELECTION PRELIMINARY RESULTS (99% of votes counted)

Number of seats in 500-member House of Representatives*

*400 constituency seats and 100 from party list system

MFP and Pheu Thai – led by Paetongtarn Shinawatra (left) – still face many hurdles to secure power due to military-drafted constitution

New Prime Minister: Chosen by House of Representatives, plus 250 senate members appointed by military