

July 3-16
London

Wimbledon 2023: Men's preview

Spain's Carlos Alcaraz claimed his first grass court title at Queen's Club in only his third tournament on the surface, regaining the World No.1 ranking from Novak Djokovic. The pair are favourites to contest the final on Centre Court

HALL OF FAME: *Djokovic (inset) could become third man after Roger Federer and Bjorn Borg to win five successive Wimbledon titles

2022	bt Nick Kyrgios	4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-6
2021	Matteo Berrettini	6-7, 6-4, 6-4, 6-3
2019	Roger Federer	7-6, 1-6, 7-6, 4-6, 13-12
2018	Kevin Anderson	6-2, 6-2, 7-6

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Carlos Alcaraz

Aiming to emulate compatriot Rafael Nadal, who won at both Queen's Club and Wimbledon in 2008

Novak Djokovic

Eighth Wimbledon victory would equal Margaret Court's all-time record of 24 Grand Slams

Daniil Medvedev

Hoping to revive title-winning form after chastening early exits at Roland Garros and Halle

Holger Rune

Emerging talent at career-high No.6 after Masters finals in Monte-Carlo and Rome

PLAYER RECORD	Alcaraz	Djokovic	Medvedev	Rune
2023 win-loss	40-4	27-4	41-8	33-12
2023 titles	5	3	5	1
Career titles (total)	11	94	20	4
Grand Slams	1	23	1	0