

Moscow airport disrupted by drone attack

A third drone attack in weeks forced flights to be diverted and brought the war in Ukraine closer to Russia's capital

Moscow

MOSCOW UNDER ATTACK

- May 3: Two drones shot down over Kremlin. Russia accuses Kyiv of attempting to assassinate President Vladimir Putin
- May 30: Two people injured after at least eight drones crash in Moscow's south-west
- Jul 4: Five drones shot down outside capital, authorities say. No casualties reported

Drones crashed or shot down

Vnukovo Airport: Flights at one of Moscow's three main airports suspended for three hours

Novo Ogaryovo
Putin's residence

MOSCOW

Kremlin

Kubinka
airbase

● Kubinka

Krivosheino

Valuevo
Two drones shot down

Kaluga region
Fifth drone shot down 164km south of capital

5km

3 miles