

Lifeline for global food security

An international deal that allows Ukraine's grain shipments by sea will expire in July. The Black Sea Grain Initiative has enabled more than 32 million tonnes of crops to reach global markets

