

Kremlin halts Black Sea grain deal

Russia has halted participation in the year-old UN-brokered Black Sea Initiative that has enabled the export of more than 32 million tonnes of Ukrainian grain, aimed to alleviate a global food crisis

