

Where Trump's cases stand

Donald Trump pleaded not guilty to four federal charges accusing him of orchestrating a criminal conspiracy to overturn his 2020 election loss – his third not-guilty plea since April

2020 ELECTION INQUIRY – 4 COUNTS

Prosecutor: Jack Smith, special counsel

Charges: Bid to reverse 2020 election defeat and Capitol attack

Evidence
collected

Counts
filed

Trial
date set

Trial starts

Verdict
reached

Aug 28: Hearing to propose trial date

MANHATTAN CRIMINAL CASE – 34 COUNTS

Prosecutor: Alvin L. Bragg, Manhattan district attorney

Hush money payments to cover up sex scandal

Evidence
collected

Counts
filed

Trial
Mar 25, 2024

Trial
starts

Verdict
reached

VIOLATING ESPIONAGE ACT – 40 COUNTS

Prosecutor: Jack Smith, special counsel

Keeping classified documents after leaving office in 2021

Evidence
collected

Counts
filed

Trial
May 20, 2024

Trial
starts

Verdict
reached

ELECTION INQUIRY IN GEORGIA

Prosecutor: Fani T. Willis, Fulton County district attorney

Trump's efforts to reverse election loss in Georgia

Evidence
collected

Counts
filed

Trial
date set

Trial
starts

Verdict
reached