

Today in History

September 2, 2022

▲ Prime Minister Narendra Modi commissioned India's first indigenously-built aircraft carrier, INS Vikrant, into the Indian Navy in a ceremony at Cochin Shipyard

1945: Japanese leaders signed the act of unconditional surrender which ended World War II

1971: The United Arab Republic reverted to its former name of Egypt. Syria had left the union in 1961

1973: J.R.R. Tolkien, British author of the classic novels The Lord of the Rings and The Hobbit, died at age 81

2016: Mother Teresa was officially declared a saint of the Roman Catholic Church