

Barbie ticket sales top $1 billion

Barbie has topped $1 billion at the global box office, becoming the biggest movie to be directed by a solo woman filmmaker

TEN HIGHEST GROSSING MOVIES DIRECTED BY WOMEN

| | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Frozen 2 | $1,453,683,476 | Jennifer Lee* |
| Frozen | $1,284,540,518 | Jennifer Lee* |
| Captain Marvel | $1,131,416,446 | Anna Boden* |
| Barbie | $1,031,481,000 | Greta Gerwig |
| Wonder Woman | $822,854,286 | Patty Jenkins |
| The Matrix Reloaded | $741,847,937 | Lana and Lilly Wachowski |
| Mamma Mia! | $694,478,392 | Phyllida Lloyd |
| Kung Fu Panda 2 | $665,692,281 | Jennifer Yuh Nelson |
| Fifty Shades of Grey | $569,651,467 | Sam Taylor-Johnson |
| Brave | $538,983,207 | Co-director Brenda Chapman |

Greta Gerwig (left) is first female filmmaker to surpass billion-dollar benchmark as solo director. Only three other films co-directed by women are higher on list

Sources: Reuters, BoxOfficeMojo, Forbes

Pictures: Getty Images, Warner Bros

© GRAPHIC NEWS