

World's declining birth rates

Japan posted the fewest births in its history last year, with estimates that four in 10 women may never have children. Birthrates are critical in developed countries with rapidly ageing populations

Crude birth rates (Change 1950-2021)

Births per 1,000 population (mid-year)

1950

2021

