

Wildfires ravaging western Canada

Hundreds of fires continue to rage across Canada's western province of British Columbia, where more than 35,000 people have been put under evacuation orders

Active wildfires in past 24 hours (data as of Aug 21, 2023)

Yellowknife: Regional capital left virtually empty after nearly all of its 20,000 residents fled blazes

YUKON

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Whitehorse

BRITISH COLUMBIA

CANADA

ALBERTA

200km
125 miles

Edmonton

Calgary

Vancouver

UNITED STATES

PACIFIC OCEAN

Okanagan: Fires threatening large parts of scenic region, including Kelowna – city of 150,000 people