

One in 10 Japanese is now over 80

Octogenarians account for more than 10% of all Japanese for the first time, while the proportion of people aged over 65 has hit a record high in the nation with the world's oldest population

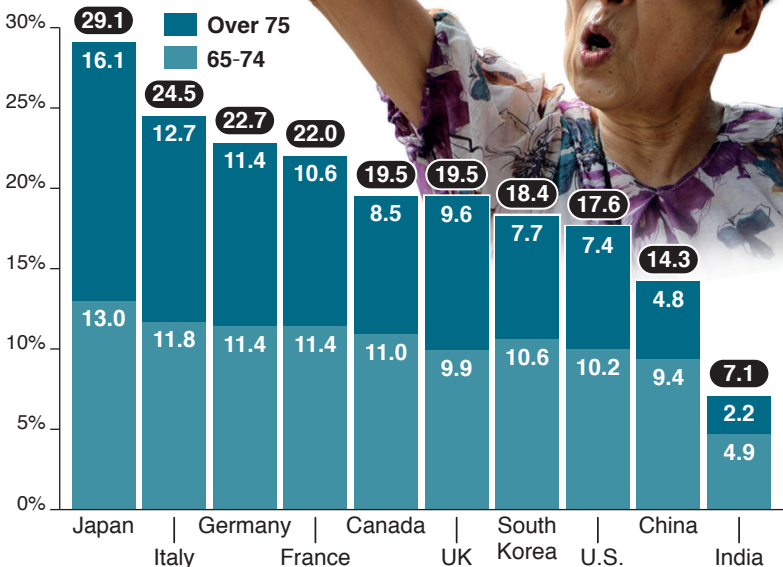

65 years
or older 29.1%
36.2m

Under 15
11.4%
14.2m

People aged 80 or older up by 270,000 from last year to record 12.5 million – 10.1% of Japan's population

PERCENTAGE OF ELDERLY PEOPLE BY COUNTRY (Over 65)

Picture: Getty Images