

Public asked to help find missing F-35

The U.S. military has asked for help to find an F-35 jet that vanished after the pilot ejected from the aircraft

📍 Columbia

Sep 17, 2pm

local time:

Plane involved in "mishap".

Pilot parachutes safely into city of North Charleston.

Plane's transponder, which helps locate aircraft, not working

F-35B Lightning II jet

Made by Lockheed Martin

Cost: $80m

Lake Marion

Lake Moultrie

Search area: Focused around Lake Moultrie and Lake Marion, based on jet's last known location

SOUTH CAROLINA

Joint Base Charleston

Appeal posted to social media asking anyone with information to contact operations centre

North Charleston

Charleston

ATLANTIC OCEAN

UNITED STATES

South Carolina

20km
12 miles