

UK and Republic of Ireland to host UEFA Euro 2028

The four UK nations and Ireland will jointly host the tournament, staged in nine cities

Gareth Bale
Wales icon

Northern Ireland:

Belfast
Casement Park*
34,500

Scotland:

Glasgow
Hampden Park
52,032

England:

Newcastle
St. James' Park
Capacity: 52,305

Manchester

Etihad Stadium
61,000

Ireland:

Dublin
Aviva Stadium
51,711

Liverpool

Everton Stadium*
52,679

Birmingham:

Villa Park
52,190

Wales:

Cardiff
Principality Stadium
73,952

London

Wembley Stadium
90,652
Tottenham Hotspur Stadium
62,322

Cardiff will host opening match, with Final at Wembley Stadium.

*Bid unopposed after Turkey withdrew to mount joint bid with Italy to host UEFA Euro 2032