

Trump's spiralling legal bills

Former U.S. President Donald Trump's political action committees have spent nearly $24 million in donor cash on attorneys and other legal costs during the first half of 2023

ELECTION INQUIRY IN GEORGIA – Criminal charges: 13

Prosecutor: Fani T. Willis,
Fulton County district attorney

Trump is accused of seeking to overturn his 2020 election loss in Georgia

Charges: Include racketeering, forgery and conspiracy

Trial date: To be set

Legal costs (Jan-Jun)
$816,006

2020 ELECTION INQUIRY – Charges: 4

Prosecutor: Jack Smith, special counsel

Bid to reverse 2020 election defeat and Jan 6, 2021 attack on Capitol

Charges: Conspiracy to defraud U.S. government, false claims of election fraud

Mar 4, 2024

$2,444,889

MANHATTAN CRIMINAL CASE – Charges: 34

Prosecutor: Alvin L. Bragg,
Manhattan district attorney

Hush money payments to cover up sex scandal in 2016 campaign

Charges: Falsifying business records

Mar 25, 2024

$9,466,404

CLASSIFIED DOCUMENTS – Charges: 40

Prosecutor: Jack Smith,
special counsel

Hoarding classified documents and Trump's refusal to return them

Charges: Violating Espionage Act, obstruction

May 20, 2024

$11,068,961

Jan-Jun total:
$23,796,260