

Yemen's Houthis enter Middle East fray

Israel has deployed warships to the Red Sea after the Iran-aligned Houthi militia in Yemen launched a ballistic missile at an Israeli city and vowed to carry out more attacks "to help the Palestinians"

IDF Navy Sa'ar 6-class corvette: Outfitted with C-Dome naval variant of Iron Dome air defence system

HOUTHI ATTACKS

1 Oct 19: USS Carney guided-missile destroyer in Red Sea intercepts three cruise missiles and several drones fired from Yemen

2 Oct 27: Drone slams into Egyptian town of Taba, wounding six people. Second drone shot down outside Egyptian airspace – debris falls near Nuweiba

3 Oct 31: Arrow missile defence system intercepts ballistic missile approaching Eilat. Israeli fighter jets shoot down cruise missiles

TOUFAN: Ballistic missile paraded in Yemen's capital, Sanaa, on Sep 21, appears to be improved Ghadr variant of Iran's Shahab-3 series

GHADR-1 Specifications

Length:	~16m
Diameter:	~1.30m
Launch weight:	19,000kg
Payload:	750-800kg
Fuel:	Liquid propellant
Range:	Up to 1,950km

