

Afghan opium supply plunges under Taliban

Opium poppy production has declined by 95% since the Taliban banned the crop in April 2022, decimating rural farming and compounding Afghanistan's humanitarian crisis

REGIONAL CHANGE IN OPIUM POPPY PRODUCTION

(Tonnes)

Farmers' incomes have fallen by 92% in 2023, from $1.36bn to $110m

OPIUM POPPY CULTIVATION 2000-2023, Hectares, 000s

