

Maersk to deploy first large methanol ship

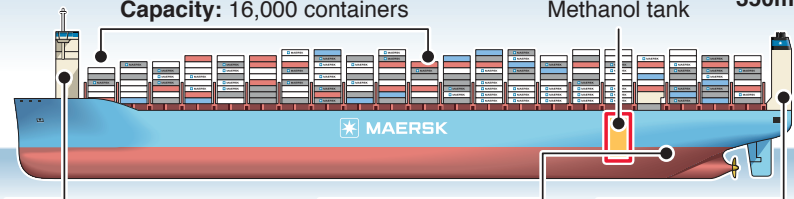

Danish shipping giant Maersk has announced it will begin operating the first of 18 large methanol-enabled container ships on the Asia-Europe trade route

MAERSK 16,000 TEU* METHANOL-FUELLED CONTAINER SHIP

Length
350m

Capacity: 16,000 containers

Methanol tank

Crew accommodation and bridge: Located at bow to enable increased container capacity

Powerplant
Dual fuel engine runs on both methanol and conventional fuels

Funnel: Offset to aft port corner to provide more cargo space

AE7 route: Maersk methanol-enabled service to begin Feb 9, 2024

● Port calls

