

Today in History

January 19, 2023

▲ Jacinda Ardern unexpectedly announced her intention to resign as prime minister of New Zealand, saying she felt she “had no more in the tank”

1966: Indira Gandhi was elected as India's first woman prime minister

1994: Solar panels with new thin film photovoltaic technology were reported to give substantially increased efficiency

2004: Japanese soldiers arrived in Iraq for a humanitarian mission, their first deployment to a combat zone since WW II

2010: Japan Airlines, Asia's biggest air carrier and over $25bn in debt, filed for bankruptcy protection