

Timeline of recent Red Sea attacks

A U.S. strike targeting Houthi missiles in Yemen is the latest move against the Iran-aligned group over its attacks on Red Sea shipping

■ Nov 2023: Houthis begin targeting ships, saying they are responding to Israel's war in Gaza

■ Jan 11, 2024: U.S. and UK launch wave of airstrikes against Houthi targets in Yemen. U.S. Navy claims seizure of Iranian weapons bound for Houthis

1 Jan 14: U.S. fighter jets intercept Houthi missile fired at U.S. warship USS Laboon (above)

2 Jan 15: U.S.-owned cargo ship Gibraltar Eagle (below) struck by Houthi missile, reports no injuries or significant damage

3 Jan 16: U.S. strike destroys four Houthi anti-ship ballistic missiles prepared for launch

4 Jan 16: Houthis target Greek-owned bulk carrier Zografia (above) sailing towards Israel. Ship suffers minor damage