

Washington's $95bn foreign aid bill

The U.S. Senate has passed a $95.3 billion aid package for Ukraine, Israel and Taiwan, following months of complex negotiations and growing Republican unease over the role of the U.S. abroad

Total
$95.34 billion

Sep 25, 2023: President Volodymyr Zelenskiy (left) takes delivery of first shipment of 31 advanced U.S. M1A2 Abrams tanks (main picture)

Spending
related to Ukraine
$60.00bn

Purchase of weapons and munitions $14bn
Training and intelligence sharing $15bn
Replenish U.S. weapons stocks $20bn
Other* $11bn

*Support Ukraine government, private sector, help displaced citizens

$8.00bn

Spending
related to Israel
$27.34bn

Military operations in region $14.10bn
Air defences $5.20bn
Humanitarian aid 8.04bn

Spending related to China

Support partners in Indo-Pacific region $6.10bn
Replenish U.S. weapons stocks $1.90bn