

Mediterranean migrants die

Survivors rescued from a rubber dinghy in the central Mediterranean Sea have reported that some 60 people who departed Libya with them more than a week ago, perished during the journey

Mediterranean migration by sea

Arrivals Jan to Mar 2024: 28,401

Arrivals 2023: 292,985

Migration routes

Dead and missing: 382

Dead and missing: 4,064

Mar 8: Dinghy departs Zawara, Libya, with about 85 people on board. Engine fails, leaving boat adrift – as many as 60 people, including several women and a child, perish

Mar 14: Rescue ship Ocean Viking (below) of SOS Mediterranee spots dinghy with 25 survivors. Two found unconscious are flown to Lampedusa but later die

