

Brazil's south ravaged by deadly floods

Rescuers are rushing to evacuate people stranded by devastating floods across the southern Brazilian state of Rio Grande do Sul, with scores dead or missing and thousands left homeless

Aerial view of flood-hit state capital Porto Alegre, May 5, 2024

At least 90 people dead and 150,000 homeless across state

Porto Alegre: Downtown streets and airport under water. Almost 500,000 people without power

