

ICC's most wanted list

If arrest warrants by the International Criminal Court (ICC) are granted, Israel's Prime Minister and defence chief, and three leaders of Hamas, would join a list of war crime suspects who remain at large

1. Vladimir Putin

■ Arrest warrant against Russian president issued in Mar 2023 for unlawful deportation and transfer of children from Ukraine to Russia since invasion of Feb 2022

► *Russia, which does not recognise ICC, has issued retaliatory arrest warrant on ICC chief prosecutor, British lawyer Karim Khan

2. Joseph Kony

■ Warrant issued in 2005 against Ugandan warlord for crimes including murder, rape, and abduction of children to use as soldiers or sex slaves

► Kony, founder of Lord's Resistance Army responsible for atrocities across Uganda from 1990s, thought to be hiding in Central African Republic or Sudan

3. Omar al-Bashir

■ Warrants against former Sudanese president issued in 2009 and 2010 for crimes relating to mass atrocities in Darfur region from 2003-2008

► Jailed in Sudan after popular uprising in 2019. Moved from prison to military hospital near capital Khartoum in April 2023

4. Saif al-Islam Gaddafi

■ Warrant against son of former Libyan president issued in 2011 for alleged crimes against humanity during rebellion that ousted Muammar Gaddafi in 2011

► Caught by militia days after Gaddafi's murder, released under amnesty law in 2017. Believed to be living near city of Zintan in northwestern Libya